

Traffic & weather are important to my business and personal life. I pay XM Radio for those information services, and it would be very inconvenient to have to seek a local radio station and then switch back to satellite. In addition, I now can check the weather before I fly to a different city. It is fundamentally unfair to deny me a legal service that I pay for.